The lapsing of the Diwan's sanction.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—A point of information, Sir, with regard to the lapsing of the sanction given by the Diwan.

Mr. T. K. Krishna Menon.—The sanction once given will lapse, with the prorogation of the session.

President.—Did you bring it to my notice for reconsideration? If sanction is once granted, and if it has lapsed, and if it is being ruled by the President that fresh sanction is required, you have to apply for it. Have you brought it to the consideration of the President with reasons for your position?

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—No, Sir.

The Cotton Industry (Statistics) Bill.

President.—The next item of business is the Cotton Industry (Statistics) Bill. It was moved by the Law Member and seconded by Mr. T. K. Krishna Menon. At the same time it was opposed by Mr. V. K. Kochunni Menon. We have now to discuss the principle of the Bill.

Mr. K. Achyuta Menon.—In British India there was an Act called the "Cotton Duties Act" which provided for the due submission of returns by the several mill-owners, showing the quantity of yarns spun and goods manufactured in the various mills. That Act was repealed with the passing of the new Act called "the Indian Cotton Industries Statistics Act" for the due submission of the returns. Simultaneously with this, another Act entitled the "Indian Finance Act" was also passed.

President.—Is there any provision in the Finance Act for the submission of the returns?
